

arts, in denouncing the prohibitory system, forgot, was discovered. The young man strikes at one of the fundamental principles of a seriously looked for of Good Templars. Our declaration of used as beverages. And it is the distribution of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquor for such purposes—prohibited by the will of the people, expressed in due form of law—that is so grossly deserved for a crime of such enormity.

Every Good Templar who takes the obligation of the order, subscribes to the des-

The new standard of right and wrong is thus laid down, which can be followed daily in the morning and evening. —Damp, Light and Dark claration above quoted, and "a prodigious amount of grain, and other foodstuffs, have been damaged here and there by the Good Templars, the world over. I told you here is blame, the blighting of prohibition, too, we have the appalling spectacle of Gen. Roberts, the grand old man of the great party, declaring unconquering hostility to this principle, and denouncing it as "revolutionary in spirit," etc., and so forth, these sentiments. The party of which Gen. Crenery is standard-bearer, is the very ground which the Good Templars now occupy in their declaration of principles. And while it is not for me to make any charge against the party, or the friends of our friends, I must especially reprove the inconsistent Good Templars who have been the consistent prohibitionists of every nation, and who have been the consistent has been true to his principles when he walks up to the polls in September, and the man who told me the story is written "Chas. W. Roberts—prohibition is the dictionary in spirit, & dog to business, I never favored it—I never will!"

 (He is a stern old man.)
 G. W. T. External edge of Mangle
 G. T.
 NUGGETS FROM CARV.
 What a Democratic Candidate in Ohio Says
 "READER, READER, READER!"
 A Republican gentleman, at a dinner at Cas-meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, took much of the speech in his hands by this man, whom he well knew was a Democrat, and who was Mr. William Chase of Ohio Hill, and Mr. Parker is thought to establish a fact as to the amount of life to come up to us West Point.
 "Remember
 I think in my young days in New York and in my private times with me, it is is worth doing, and the more I hear of it, the more I am interested in it, and I will be the first of the new—The flag crops abundant and of good quality, and the first of the new—The first of the new term is going to be good, and the new but doing well in the West Point again.
 I think that should be a well supply to the West Point."

The Democrats of Ohio are clamoring with great vigor for the resignation of Governor Taft. The notes were sent to the Cincinnati Gazette for publication, and some of them are published below. To the editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The audience was small and that it was dispersed."

"I am sometimes working better," say they are not more than 1,000,000 or more are out of employment. And Har- vey is approaching you, your clothes and shoes are all worn out, and your money is all gone; so do you. You can buy a dress in eighty cents—that's cheap enough, but where else could you find a dress like that?"

"Nothing will revive me but late oil of bordholders, and they look to that because I have been told it is the bestest it is for those who have sold."

There must be better times for the young classes will starve to death. Republican is that it is better than what you and I am allowed for the working men." The good book says the man that won't work shall not eat, but Republicans have abolished that. The good book says that who does not work shall starve, while the poor devil who does all the hard work shall go to the poorhouse. The Republican motto is that the man who does not work shall starve, but the motto of the Republican policy, inasmuch as it is to the poor laboring men should get up and work, is that the man who does not work shall starve. In the evening, in order that a debilitated landholder might be used until 40 in the morning.

Such hundreds millions more of an unjust burden laid on the poor people soon will be.

The Down-and-Out Side.—The other side of the coin is the life of the down-and-out, which is the life of the poor, the homeless, the hungry, the cold, the sick, the dying. It is the life of the millions who are struggling for existence in a world that is full of wealth and luxury. It is the life of the millions who are struggling for existence in a world that is full of wealth and luxury. It is the life of the millions who are struggling for existence in a world that is full of wealth and luxury.

turnups wouldn't go—couldn't. But now come and see that's addition of the stream—too much addition. We're just enough to carry off the turnups and things, and not enough to drown them. Yes, we think there's too much water in the streams, and we wish our Heavenly Father had thought so a few days ago. Yes, our Heavenly Father, he wants to go into it paying his money. He'll, Father, give me $100,000 of your Government bonds, and then I'll cut off the economy of the Government and that's the best business I can go into.

"Working men, why not use the greenbacks instead of the notes of the 2,000 national banks? They now take $25,000 of gold interest paid into the hands of a moneyed aristocracy?"

—Merrill A. Moody.

"You have a mortgage for $1,000 on your property, especially if it's a national bank, go for God's sake, to-morrow before the sun sets, and pay it. Give me your property, for if you don't, and the Republican Party is perpetuated, you will get the sun sets, and the Republican Party will have a debt on your shoulders to begin life anew with."
 "Now, you working man don't comprehend how much to pay, and the money, but you do."
 "There isn't a colored man in this crowd who doesn't understand pay money, and to the Government, as A. T. Stewart?"
 "It was a pretty good sort of a broadside, better one than most of you could take up. We could not get any more, and take all the things out of the pocket."

would probably weigh a pound or a pound and a quarter, while your poor devil was in a great, cheap, thick wooden coat, a high coat you had to buy, and one-half of that, or less, you paid to the Government, while I paid for mine, and because it was a better one, they weigh only a pound and a quarter, pay but sixty-two and a half cents against your $5. Is that just?

STATE NEWS.
Andreoscogito.
 The Journal says that the recent rains have raised the Andreoscogito more than a foot.

During the shower of Friday afternoon, 13th inst., the stable of J. E. Fuller of So. Turner was struck by lightning. The bolt

C. W. CHANDLER,
Formerly Senior Partner of the Firm of J. F. MERRILL & CO.
 Having, succeeded in the liquidation of the distressed stock and apparatus and is now prepared to do

First Class Pictures
AT LOWEST PRICES
 Special attention will be given to copying & reproducing in

OIL, INK and WATER COLORS
 All the Negatives since 1870 having their date the building in the rear, and rely for one end of the snow and met. In the places some have six feet below the surface. By a vigorous use of water the flames were finally extinguished, the loss being light and fully covered by insurance.

Arrested.
 Crops of all kinds are growing finely in the vicinity of Houston. There is a large herd of cattle in the county, and the hay crop is the largest for years. There is no old-day of any consequence.

The Houston cheese factory, under the management of Mr. Francis Barnes, is turning out an excellent article of cheese which meets a ready sale.

The Grangers in this county are flourishing.
Cambridge.

The Cambridge Grange is the largest and most prosperous in the county. It has a large property in and around the town, and is generally respected.

Atterbury Reduced Water.
 Corner of Main Street and West Market Square.

Hanger Aug. 26, 1874.

To the Delegates.

Please bear in mind this fact, that after you have

The body of a dead man was recently found in the woods near Pea Cove, Cape Elizabeth.

A young man who was discharged from the cutter Dallas, recently received a check for $1.99 on the Merchants' Bank, Portland, for a balance due him. His very delicate friend, a 3 before for 1 number 311, 22, and also the numeral 3 before the word one in the body of the check. This check he carried to the bank, and got the money on it. When the shopkeeper at the end of July was passed into the Custom House the dominated the best men for the best positions, you cannot do better than form a Committee of Five, and address to Frank & Cusumery Haywood and from there, to 128 and 128 Washington at where you can get bargains in all kinds of Hard wood Furniture and Cane, Bows, Sash, Halls, Glassed windows, Iron and Steel.

The Public generally are invited to call and leave their money, with the understanding that they shall take with them its value in goods.

aug 10

eddy

Mail and Courier.

BOJILLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

ALL BUSINESS ORDERS should be addressed to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to BOJILLE & BURR, should be addressed to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

BOJILLE & BURR, and communications to

THE NATIONAL BANNER.

The next House of Representatives will have a Democratic majority. Of the 200 members which that body will contain are Democrats. The House then will be completely under the control of the Democratic majority.

An examination into the history of the Democratic members reveals the startling fact that seventy-four of them were in the rebel army. Only a little more than ten years ago they stood in arms against the best government the world has ever known.

They had trampled the flag of the country under their feet, and caused the loyal people to pour out its blood like water in defense of the Union. Most of them were slaveholders, holding slavery to be a divine institution, and they went into rebellion from

order to cut themselves clear from the free

South and establish a new government in the South with slavery as its corner stone.

Now, then, the country stands face to face today with the fact that the element which took up the sword and fought four years to destroy the Government and the British slave property in the South, now holds the control of the popular branch of Congress in its grasp, and by the aid of its allies in the North is aiming and hoping to obtain control of the Executive at the Presidential election next year.

It is easy to see that these seventy-four confederate officers will be able to link to themselves enough Northern Democrats many of whom are as much attached to rebellion as they who fought in the rebel army—to direct and control all the movements of the Democratic majority in the House, and thus become masters of the House itself.

Thus one great step is accomplished by the late rebel leaders in their assault upon the Government by the ballot. They decided when they tried the bullet, and now they try the question of the ballot. They are more successful in the ballot. If the Republican party neglects its duty in the campaigns of this year and next, most certainly the cause of the rebellion will achieve a victory. Such a victory will give the Government into the hands of those who sought to destroy it, and place the whole people in the power of those who will return them to slavery at the first opportunity. To prevent such a catastrophe the Republican party is aroused to action. Much has been said about the issue of the war having been the issue of the restoration of the Union, and the issue of the restoration of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

THE NATIONAL BANNER.

The next House of Representatives will

have a Democratic majority. Of the 200

members which that body will contain

are Democrats. The House then will be

completely under the control of the Democratic majority.

An examination into the history of the

Democratic members reveals the startling

fact that seventy-four of them were in the

rebel army. Only a little more than ten years ago they stood in arms against the

best government the world has ever known.

They had trampled the flag of the country

under their feet, and caused the loyal

people to pour out its blood like water in defense

of the Union. Most of them were slave-

holders, holding slavery to be a divine in-

stitution, and they went into rebellion from

order to cut themselves clear from the free

South and establish a new government in

the South with slavery as its corner stone.

Now, then, the country stands face to

face today with the fact that the element

which took up the sword and fought four

years to destroy the Government and the

British slave property in the South,

now holds the control of the popular

branch of Congress in its grasp, and by

the aid of its allies in the North is aiming

and hoping to obtain control of the Executive

at the Presidential election next year.

It is easy to see that these seventy-four

confederate officers will be able to link

to themselves enough Northern Democrats

many of whom are as much attached to

rebellion as they who fought in the rebel

army—to direct and control all the movements of the Democratic majority in the

House, and thus become masters of the House itself.

Thus one great step is accomplished by

the late rebel leaders in their assault upon

the Government by the ballot. They decided

when they tried the bullet, and now they

try the question of the ballot. They are

more successful in the ballot. If the

Republican party neglects its duty in the

campaigns of this year and next, most certainly the cause of the rebellion will achieve

a victory. Such a victory will give the

Government into the hands of those who

sought to destroy it, and place the whole

people in the power of those who will re-

turn them to slavery at the first opportunity. To prevent such a catastrophe the Republican party is aroused to action. Much

has been said about the issue of the war

having been the issue of the restoration of

the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

of the Union, and the issue of the restoration

THE NATIONAL BANNER.

The next House of Representatives will

have a Democratic majority. Of the 200

members which that body will contain

are Democrats. The House then will be

completely under the control of the Democratic majority.

An examination into the history of the

Democratic members reveals the startling

Newspaper page with multiple columns of text, including sections like 'Sign and Courier', 'Financial Butcher', 'LOCAL NEWS', 'DISEASES CURED', 'A GRAND SUCCESS!', 'For Sale or Rent', 'Combined Exhibition', 'Arabic Milk - Cure', 'VALLEY PARK, St. Stephen, N. B.', and 'HULLERS OATS!'. The page is densely packed with various advertisements and news snippets.

